Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

Why suffer from rheumatism when relief may be had at so small a cost? Mrs. Elmer Hatch, Peru, Ind., writes, "I have been subject to attacks of rheumatism for years. Chamberlain's Liniment always relieves me immediately, and I take pleasure in recommending it to others," 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by all Dealers.

Rev. G. B Hall returned Friday from Oklahoma. He is to go to Solano next week to do some carpenter work but will be here for the S. S. Convention at Palouse.

Ghosts as Dreams.

The probability that we get matches of sleep at odd moments when we suppose ourselves to have remained continuously awake is supported by the phenomena of dreams. Mark Twain accounted for his own 'disappearing visitor' by the belief that he had unconsciously had a very short nap; and many have explained visions of ghosts as due to dreams during such short naps.

Punished Perjury With Death.

The early Romans threw perjurers from the Tarpelan rock, a high cliff, falling from which was certain death, and at a later period any person who swore falsely was sentenced to have his tongue cut out, which also was equivalent to death.

Pretty Good Motto.

"I knew a man," said a live-wire young minister, "who attributed much of his worldly success to a rule he'd make for himself. He saw how much time and how many opportunities went wrong, and how much money was wasted by indecisionists, as he called them. So he adopted for one of his mottoes: 'Guess quick and stick to it.'"

Forty Years a Public Charge.

Forty years in the workhouse is the record of a man living at New Ross, County Wexford, Ireland. The inmate is seventy years old.

Pleasant News for Hubby.

Young Wife (to older and seaisick husband)—"Now, dear, just be as comfortable as you can, and don't worry about me. I'm not lonesome. There's half a dozen men up on deck who's been awfully nice to me. And such a joke! They think I'm a widow!"—Puck.

Emerson's Advice.

There should be on every tower watchers set to observe and report of every new ray of light, in what quarter soever of heaven it should appear, and their report should be eagerly and reverently received.—Emerson.

Stick to Your Own Opinion.

Isn't it a fact that the man who agrees with everybody is almost as unpopular as the one who agrees with nobody? We must have minds of our own and the good sense to keep them to ourselves at the proper time.

Fever Statistics.

People are most liable to fever between the ages of fifteen and twenty; 209 out of every 1,000 cases occur at that age. There are only 10 per 1,000 under five and 2 per 1,000 over fifty-five.

Company for George.

Bobbie, aged six, asked his mother: "You are not a liar, mamma, are you?" "No, son, I never told a lie." Bobbie hesitated, but he was so proud of his mother he said: "Mother, you won't be very lonesome when you go to heaven, 'cause you'll be with George Washington."

Science and the Milkman.

Housekeeper—"What makes you so late with the milk these mornings?" Milkman—"Well, you see, mum, the pure-food law don't allow us more than 25,000,000 bacteria to the gallon, an' you wouldn't believe how long it takes to count the little devils."—Lippincott's.

Slight Correction.

Fourthbell—"Your cook has been with you for a long time, has she not?" Brownstone—"We have been with her for five years."—Puck.
